TEN FOR TEN MEAL DELIVERY

Low Cost Meals Delivered for $10 with 100% of Sales to Support Staff and Community.

This week, as we celebrate our 12-year anniversary at The Local, we have been forced to temporarily close our doors due to the COVID-19 outbreak. This was a tough decision, but one we felt was necessary for the safety of our staff and customers. Through these 12 years in Charlottesville, we have found such immense support from the community and our neighbors, and at this pivotal moment in our town's history, we feel as a restaurant that this is our opportunity to give back to the community to help them through the upcoming weeks.

Starting March 18th, The Local will be offering a meal delivery service that we call the "Ten for Ten" program, offering ten meal options for a flat cost of $10, inclusive of tax and delivery fees. These entrees are inspired from our regular menu, cooked by our Executive Chefs Matthew Hart & Melissa Close-Hart. Every penny of that $10 sale will go to support the paid leave we are providing to our staff of 50+ employees. Additionally, we will be offering free meals daily to all our staff, and free/discounted meals to those in the community who cannot afford the $10 price tag.

When purchasing your meals online for delivery or curbside pickup, you'll have the option to tip. For those that have the financial means to tip, 100% of these contributions will be used to sustain the discounted meal program. We hope that people approach this with a "pay what you can" mentality, knowing that any additional tips will allow us to help more and more within our community.

We are grateful for your support and look forward to serving the Charlottesville community through this tumultuous time.
